Artist Showcase to be Held at The Latino Cultural Center

The Office of Cultural Affairs will be holding its Annual Neighborhood Touring Program (NTP) Artist Showcase at the Latino Cultural Center on Saturday, September 24, 2005 from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The event is to promote free artistic and cultural services provided by the Neighborhood Touring Program to schools, recreation centers, churches and community organizations in the city of Dallas. More than 60 visual and performing artists representing Dallas' diverse cultural communities will give live demonstrations.

The NTP encourages all community organizations to come and explore samples of authentic performances, workshops and artist-in residence programs that will be held at the Latino Cultural Center. Admission is free.

The mission of the Latino Cultural Center is to serve as a catalyst for the preservation, development and promotion of Latino and Hispanic arts and culture in Dallas. The Center is located at 2600 Live Oak, Dallas, Texas 75206 and is open Tuesday – Friday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. For additional information please call 214-670-3320 or visit our Web site at www.dallasculture.org.
