“Empower youth to empower communities”

VOLUNTEER INFORMATION

Sync Facts

The Beginning:

The Teen CONTACT Program at CONTACT Crisis Line partnered with Dallas Parks & Recreation Youth Development Program, Greater Dallas Council of Alcohol and Drug Abuse, and Dallas ISD Safe and Drug-Free Schools to create a dynamic summer leadership program for Dallas ISD high school students.

The Name:

sync. means to link, synchronize, harmonize, agree, correspond, equal, match. (dictionary.com) sync. in for success.

The Mission:

“sync. 2009 tour” is a four week leadership summer program for high school students from Dallas ISD schools. Each participant will learn how to build leadership skills and assets that they can use in their everyday lives.

Topics such as positive relationships & boundaries, cyberbullying, teen dating violence, alcohol and drug abuse, depression and suicide, media influence, self-image, and leadership development will be introduced in a new format accented with developmental tools to help students through daily stressors.

Small Group Leader Volunteer

As a small group leader volunteer, you will be teamed with another adult volunteer and as a team, you will help facilitate and support your small group. We have speakers for each session each day; therefore, you will not need to prepare any icebreakers or presentations. We will have two female groups and two male groups. Please contact Missy for more information if needed: mwall@contactcrisisline.org.
