

CITY OF DALLAS
POURING YOUR COOKING OIL
DOWN THE DRAIN CLOGS YOUR PIPES

Want to know what to do with your used cooking oil?

The City of Dallas wants to help you recycle your used cooking oil and any other vegetable cooking oil (sorry no cooking grease, motor oil, or food scraps).

Place your cooking oil in rigid plastic containers and secure with a screw top lid for transporting.

The City will accept your cooking oil at the locations listed below for recycling. For more information on recycling cooking oil, contact Dallas Water Utilities at (214) 670-6749.
