Artist Showcase to be Held at the Latino Cultural Center

The City of Dallas Office of Cultural Affairs will be holding its Annual Neighborhood Touring Program (NTP) Artist Showcase at the Latino Cultural Center, 2600 Live Oak on Saturday, September 23, 2006 from 9:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

The event is to promote free artistic and cultural services provided by the Neighborhood Touring Program to DISD schools, recreation centers, libraries, churches and community organizations in the city of Dallas. Local visual and performing artists representing Dallas' diverse cultural communities will give live demonstrations.

Enjoy traditional music and dance from Spain, Mexico, Africa and the Philippines. Visit with painters, sculptors, weavers and storytellers to discuss your specific program needs.

The Office of Cultural Affairs encourages all community organizations to come and explore samples of authentic performances, workshops and artist-in residence programs that will be held at the Latino Cultural Center. Admission is FREE and open to the public.
