JULY IS NATIONAL ICE CREAM MONTH

In 1984, President Ronald Reagan designated July as National Ice Cream Month and the third Sunday of the month as National Ice Cream Day. He recognized ice cream as a fun and nutritious food that is enjoyed by 90% of the nation's population.

Dryers Ice Cream is partnering with the Mayor's "Back-to-School" Fair this year in celebration of national ice cream month and the Calvary-Philadelphia Baptist Church will serve Dryers Ice Cream to the first 300 children (accompanied by their parent or guardian) who visit the Fellowship Hall at 4703 Sunnyvale to sign up for "FREE School Supply Packs." Requirements for registering: photo ID, proof that they reside in Dallas and proof of income. For more information visit www.dallascityhall.com. Come and enjoy delicious Dryers Ice Cream.

Don't miss the last chance to sign up for FREE school supplies before the fair which will be held on Thursday, August 2, 2007, 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Fair Park.
