Battle of the Badges set for August

Dallas Police and Dallas Fire Rescue to help American Red Cross in blood drive

Each summer the blood reserves drop to dangerous levels and victims of accidents or illnesses could be in danger for lack of adequate blood supply. In order to prevent this from happening the Dallas Police Department and the Dallas Fire Rescue in association with the American Red Cross will enter into a friendly competition to invite the community to roll up their sleeves and donate blood on behalf of either one of those departments. The period for donations will be from Wednesday, August 5 to Wednesday, August 19, 2009
