“Working Together for Better Health” bus to visit Highland Hills Library;
The purpose is to help Medicare patients update their health benefits

Dallas, TX - The National Medicare “Working Together for Better Health” Bus Tour will visit the Highland Hills Branch Library, 3624 Simpson Stuart Road from 1 to 4 p.m., Monday, Dec. 17. The tour will offer free counseling and Medicare enrollment assistance. Medicare staff will help patients review their health and drug coverage, compare their current plan with other available options, provide information about drug coverage assistance and help fill out applications and forms.

The "Working Together for Better Health" Medicare Bus Tour is visiting communities across the country helping people with Medicare make the most of their benefits. Medicare patients can review and change their health benefits during the open enrollment period, which continues through Dec. 31.

The bus tour is part of the Highland Hills Branch Library Seniors Fair, a community outreach which will also feature free food, holiday prizes and preventive health screenings.

The Dallas Public Library operates the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library, 1515 Young St., and 25 branch locations. A library card is free for any Dallas resident. For information on the many free programs and services available at the Dallas Public Library, visit: www.dallaslibrary.org.
