Library employee is first Alumni Society scholarship winner

Award presented by UNT School of Library and Information Sciences

DALLAS, TX – A Dallas Public Library employee is the first recipient of the University of North Texas (UNT) School of Library and Information Sciences Alumni Society Endowment scholarship. Lauren Ko is a Library Associate in the Central Library's Fine Arts Division, where she provides art related reference services and organizes the downtown facility's photograph collection.

Ko graduated Magna Cum Laude with a bachelor's degree in computer science from UNT in May 2004. She currently serves as secretary of the Library and Information Sciences Student Association (LISSA) and has redesigned the organization's website.

The Dallas Public Library operates the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library, 1515 Young St., and 25 branch locations. A library card is free for any Dallas resident. For information on the many free programs and services available at the Dallas Public Library, go to: <http://dallaslibrary.org/home.htm>.
