Gallery hours: Tuesday—Saturday 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. The public is invited to attend an opening reception with the artists hosted by the Friends of the Latino Cultural Center, on Thursday, July 19, 2007 starting at 5:30 pm.

Hecho en Dallas / Made in Dallas Exhibit is an annual juried exhibition that showcases recent work by professional artists who reside and are active in the artistic environment of Dallas area. The exhibition was conceived by the Latino Cultural Center in recognition of the talented pool of artists whose creative endeavors give vitality to the cultural movement in Greater Dallas. For the 2007 edition of this annual exhibition, the guest jurors reviewed 64 applications and selected the eleven artists for the exhibition. Serving as jurors were Mark Roglán, Ph.D., director of the Meadows Museum at Southern Methodist University, independent curator Stephen Vollmer, and artists Viola Delgado and Celia Álvarez Muñoz.

The Latino Cultural Center is a division of the City of Dallas Office of Cultural Affairs.
