

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 4, 2010

City of Dallas will begin Warrant Roundup on Saturday;
Officers will begin arresting people with outstanding warrants

What: The Dallas City Marshal's Office will conduct a warrant round-up of individuals with outstanding arrest warrants for unpaid traffic and non-traffic citations. Offenders who are delinquent in satisfying their City of Dallas warrants are subject to being arrested and jailed. Dallas is joining law enforcement agencies from across Texas for the 2010 Statewide Warrant Roundup.

Persons with outstanding City citations can avoid arrest by appearing in person at the Lew Sterrett Justice Center Lobby, 111 W. Commerce, from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. seven days a week or by visiting 106 S. Harwood between 7:15 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, (wheelchair access is at 2014 Main Street). Citations can also be paid online at http://www.dallascityhall.com/courts/court\_online\_payments.html.

The newly established Saturday Court (Magistrate/Proof or Plea Court), at 106 S. Harwood, open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. is another option for handling delinquent citations. This will allow defendants to visit with a Judge to quickly take care of traffic citations and eliminate the need to set a future court appearance.

Where: Detention Center, City Marshal's Office, 1600 Chestnut St.

When: 6 a.m. Saturday, March 6

Note: Members of the news media who wish to accompany officers on this roundup should report to the City Marshal's Office, located at the City Detention Center, 1600 Chestnut St. at 5:30 a.m. The City Marshal will conduct a short briefing at 6 a.m. Immediately following the briefing, media representatives will be directed to a pre-determined location, and the roundup will begin.
