Love for Love Field Public Art

- “I looked to my left and was blown away by the beautiful new mural. It was, by far, the most original, appropriate and beautiful artwork in any medium I have seen in any airport in the world, and you know I have been through a lot of airports since resigning as an Astronaut from NASA ... It inspired both an appreciation of the details in nature, and a calm that is so contrary to my normal experience at an airport.” – Alan Bean, Apollo 12 Astronaut

- “Passing through Love Field, I was enthralled with the Public Art. As a touring musician, I have visited many countries including their museums and am always fascinated with the airports such as Amsterdam’s Schipol, Paris' DeGaulle, London's Heathrow and more. Love Field is marvelous -- so much so that my walk to the baggage claim was a wonderful, surprising adventure thanks to you and the Office of Cultural Affairs.” – Leena Quest, Musician, New York
IV. Arts Learning & Audience Development

- Thriving Minds partnership with Big Thought
  - In-school through ArtsPartners
  - Out-of-school time in DISD campuses and other neighborhood locations
  - National and local private sector investment in the Thriving Minds Initiative through Big Thought
- After-school and summer art camps at four cultural centers are funded by the City through funding awarded to Big Thought.
