DALLAS HOUSING FINANCE CORPORATION: STATUS UPDATE

A BRIEFING TO THE HOUSING COMMITTEE
April 21, 2014
Purpose

- To review Dallas Housing Finance Corporations’ (DHFC) authorization, history and mission
- To provide an update on current programs and financial status
- To discuss DHFC’s role in the context of City Housing Policy
Mission

- To support Citywide efforts to provide affordable housing for low to moderate income persons (LMIs) by:
  - Facilitating financing of development or redevelopment of multifamily rental housing
  - Providing programs to assist first time single family home buyers
  - Making annual donations to fulfill its public purpose
Authorization

- City Council Resolution on 4/25/84 creates DHFC as Texas non-profit corporation
  - Texas Housing Finance Corporation Act
  - Board appointed by City Council (See Appendix A)
- Authorized to issue revenue bonds on behalf of the City for purpose of providing Housing for LMI persons in City of Dallas
- City Council resolution of 1/11/06 requires pre-application waiver by Council prior to approving new tax credit transactions
- Bylaws amended to allow DHFC (direct or through subsidiary) to purchase, lease, own or acquire interest in residential development – all transactions require DHFC Board and City Council approval
DHFC Products and Services

- Tax Exempt Bond Financing
- Multifamily Ownership
- Tenant Service Compliance Monitoring
- Single Family Programs
  - Mortgage Revenue Bonds
  - Mortgage Credit Certificates (MCC)
- Loan Program for 9% tax credits
- Donations supporting affordable housing
Multifamily Tax Exempt Bond Financing

- DHFC serves as issuer of Tax Exempt Bonds
- Used in conjunction with 4% Tax Credits from Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs (TDHCA)
- DHFC receives application fee ($2K), processing fee ($10K) a 50 basis point fee at closing and annual issuer fee (10 basis points on outstanding principal)
- Since 2002, 8 projects for families totaling 1,980 units and 2 projects for seniors totaling 512 units (see Appendix B for list of properties)
Multifamily Ownership

- Council approved DHFC to own residential developments (directly or through a subsidiary)
  - Limited partnership structure
  - DHFC subsidiary is general partner with .01% ownership interest
  - Equity provider and developer partner are limited partners with 99.99% ownership interest
  - Creates Ad Valorem Tax Exempt status to improve project feasibility
Multifamily Ownership (Cont’d)

- Must facilitate development/redevelopment that materially improves a neighborhood condition and/or supports underserved groups
- Allows DHFC to receive income (closing fee, cash flow split, Bond application, processing, closing and annual issuance fees) significantly in excess of current City Tax assessment
- Fee income supports GAP financing for mixed income Housing
- All transactions must be approved by Council
Currently own two (2) properties

- Gurley Place (24 unit Jubilee Seniors Project)
- Providence at Mockingbird (251 units; 155 for seniors, 96 for families)
Multifamily Ownership (Cont’d)

- Two properties approved by Council for ownership interest (closing expected, Summer 2014)
  - Bruton Apartments (260 new construction units for families)
  - Parks at Cliff Creek (268 units to be substantially renovated)
Tenant Service Compliance Monitoring

- TDHCA and the council approved Social Service Policy requires LIHTC project owners to provide supportive services at no cost to the tenants
  - Can choose from a list of 20 types of services
  - Must provide a minimum of $40K or $200 per unit/year, whichever is greater (can be in-kind)
- Tenant services include:
  - After school tutoring and homework help
  - Teen awareness programs related to drugs and alcohol as well as social and business etiquette
  - Computer education
  - Swimming classes
  - Senior activities: health/wellness checks, pot luck meals, bingo/card games, community gardens, Big Sisters Program with children
- DHFC monitors and enforces compliance at 31 projects financed with tax credits since 2004 (including 10 where DHFC was bond issuer)
Single Family Program

- Since 1985, DHFC issued $124 Million+ in tax-exempt Bonds resulting in mortgage loans to 1,621 first-time homebuyers
  - Program ended in 2008 due to market conditions
- In lieu of traditional single family mortgage program, Council approved DHFC to convert its “volume cap” to mortgage credit certificates (See Appendix B for Program Guidelines)
  - A Federal tax credit program that provides up to $2,000 per year in assistance
  - Provided 145 MCC for first time homebuyers since 2009
  - Now marketing in conjunction with Housing Department’s Mortgage Assistance Program (MAP)
Loan Program for 9% Tax Credits

- DHFC serves as “Conduit Lender” to a 9% tax credit applicant
  - TDHCA administered program is very competitive
  - Points awarded to applicants receiving political subdivision funding (DHFC a qualified entity)
- Loan funding contingent on TDHCA allocation approval and third party funding source
  - Tri-party agreement between DHFC, third party lender and applicant
  - Loan terms/collateral assigned by DHFC to lender without recourse or liability
- DHFC receives a fee for service
- Council has approved one transaction under this program
  - $1.75M loan to Wynnewood Seniors Housing II, LP (Bank of America CDC)
DHFC is Self Funding

- Total cash/investments as of 12/31/13 = $583K
  - Required operating reserve of $450K
- 2014 operating budget $247,580
- Primary sources of annual revenue are:
  - Issuer fees from tax exempt bond financing ($204K in 2013)
  - General partnership supervisory fees ($148K in 2013)
  - Miscellaneous application, processing and TDHCA fees ($51K in 2013)
Donation Programs

- Cash Surplus position evaluated in 4th quarter of each calendar year and grant applications are considered by DHFC Board
  - Recent priorities have been:
    - Metro Dallas
    - North Texas Housing Coalition
    - Housing Department’s Home Repair Program
- Since 2004 DHFC has provided $2Million+ to support non-profit Housing providers, homeless programs and Housing Department initiatives (Bexar St., Copella Park, People Helping People, Home Repair and NIP Programs)
GOING FORWARD

- Align DHFC Programs with City Housing Policies and strategic direction
- Continue to utilize financial tools authorized by State law to support the development of quality residential development for low to moderate income individuals
